

8. VIC: What can I get for ya? We have everything. Rye and coke, rye and ginger, rye and everything.

9. TAMMY: Just coke for me.

10. REX: I'll have a beer? (beat.) And a rye.

11. VIC: That's what I like to hear. I'll be right back.

12. STELLA: So sit down, sit down take a load off. I like your hair dear - what's that colour called?

13. TAMMY: Well I kind of made it up. It's what happens when you work in a hair salon.

14. REX: In nature they call it green.

15. STELLA: (laughing.) Oh it's not green. Is it? I'd love you to look at mine while you're here Tam. I can't do anything with it.

16. TAMMY: Well -

17. REX: She'd love to. But Stella - don't you like your... afro?

18. STELLA: (laughing.) Oh you. 'Snot an afro. It's a perm. He's a card, eh Tammy? Should be dealt with.

19. TAMMY: (fuming.) Oh he will be.

20. VIC: (entering.) Here we go.

21. STELLA: What do you think of Tammy's hair, Vic?

22. VIC: Don't matter what I think. As long as the boyfriend likes it.

23. STELLA: Well do ya Rex?

24. REX: Uh - do I Tammy?

25. TAMMY: Well - Rex isn't my boyfriend -

26. STELLA: You're not married! God if I missed the wedding -

27. TAMMY: No no - we're just friends. He just came to keep me company.

28. REX: Yes we're just old buddies, old pals, although we did date a few times.

29. DARLA: (Threatening him.) But that was a long time ago.

30. REX: (teasing her.) Yes, we were young - and confused.

31. VIC: (handing Rex his drinks.) Here ya go son.

32. REX: Thanks.

33. VIC: Oh you're a south-paw , are ya?

34. REX: Yes I'm a leftie. That's all right isn't it?

35. STELLA: He doesn't care what you are, as long as you're pourin' somethin' down your throat.

36. TAMMY: I was sorry to hear about Grammie, Aunt Stella.

37. VIC: (Aside to Rex.) Speaking of pourin' somethin' down your throat.

38. STELLA: Vic! You speak nicely about my mother.

39. VIC: You know as well as I do, she only lived as long as she did, 'cause alcohol's a preservative.

40. STELLA: (laughing.) Oh, you're gonna get it. Thanks for the thought Tammy - Grammie would be so pleased you came for her funeral.

41. VIC: So what do you do Rex?

42. REX: Oh. Um - well I'm a waiter. For now .

43. STELLA: Is that gonna be your career?

44. REX: (laughing.) Well I'm not sure yet. I did spend four years in the Anglican Seminary. But I left when I discovered dancing.
45. STELLA: (Interested.) Oh. You mean Ballroom?
46. REX: No. (beat.) Disco.
